

Bronwyn

An octopus-like creature who is blue in colour, although he does blush green from time to time. He can live equally well in or out of water, although he prefers the coolness of water. His is an ancient people who were conquered by House D'mon many years ago and his people enslaved. He was given to Jennifer as a pet, but she treated him as an equal and a friend, before they escaped together. Bronwyn likes to travel and see new places, he can always find Jennifer no matter in which time she's in or planet she's on. He has no idea that his name is a girl's name on Earth.
