

Daniel, Cousin

Running a book store called Fiction Paradox in Brisbane Queensland is the roguish, periaptic member of the Faction. Although technically a member of the Faction, he is more likely to tell one of the Fathers to go and molest himself with a quasi-relic from the stacks.

Cousin Octavia has been on record as saying "If he'd try harder, he actually be useful" while Father Stendec has said "If this prick doesn't return that book by last week I'll have his guts for my bootlaces".

Not lazy, rather laconic and laidback, he may or may not even be associated with a certain red haired Great Houses renegade who's been seen in the vicinity of the Brisbane bookstore.
