

Kaldor Timeline

Chronicler's Note: This timeline is specific to the Kingdom of Kaldor to 1 Helane 719.

Early History

Prehistory-113: Jarin tribes settle in the Kald river valley and develop petty fiefdoms; the legends of these tribes hold the pagan gods they worshipped lived in the fabled city of Azadmere in the Sorkin Mountains, which was inaccessible by mortals, but filled with immeasurable wealth.

113-120: Lothrim 'the Foulspawner,' a Melderyni rebel and one of the leaders of the Heresy of the Dark Trimvir, conquers and rules an empire stretching from the Kald region to the Thard until his failure to return from an expedition to Kiraz. His empire leaves numerous monuments behind and serves as the impetus for many of the tribes he conquered to strive for 'civilization.'

120-178: The heartlands of Lothrim's empire, the Kald region, fall into chaos. The Four Kingdoms period begins: Nurelia, Kephria, Pagostra, and Serelind.

The Four Kingdom Period

125: Arthwys Sanric the First founds the Kingdom of Nurelia (Olokand area), first mention of the Sword of Calsten - the Lion's Blade.

128: City of Tashal and Kingdom of Kephria founded by Shala of Kephria.

137: Prince Hain Parlis founds the Kingdom of Pagostra

178-240: Migration Wars with surrounding tribes.

178: Battle of Hosat - Kath barbarians destroy the largest Kephrian settlement in the Kathela hills

180: Battle of Noneth - King Medrik I of Serelind defeats the eastern Taelda tribes

182: Pagostra invaded by Pagaelin barbarians, King Orsin Parlis appeals for aid to Serelind.

183: Battle of Kobing - Pagaelin defeated, King Orsin Parlis of Pagostra swears fealty to King Medrik Tane of the Kingdom of Serelind, Orsin becomes the first Earl of Pagostra at Kiban

187: Battle of Lareb Hill - King Torbet of Kephria slain battling the Kath barbarians leaving only children as his heirs. King Medrik of Serelind marches into Tashal to "aid the leaderless people of Kephria against the barbarians"

Kaldoric Unification

188: Kingdom of Kaldor proclaimed by Medrik I as he annexes Kephria and joins it with Serelind and Pagostra. Nurelia remains independent. Claudia Tane becomes a figure of national legend, and is credited with converting Medrik I and the great houses of Kaldor to the Monist faith. Her relationship to Medrik I is a matter of controversy. Ancient manuscripts describe her as being his sister-wife, but many argue this is not possible and, as a result, suggest she was his niece. Other manuscripts refer to her as being a Nurelian Princess given to Medrik in thrall. A warrior and poet, she eventually becomes the patron saint of the Order of St. Claudia Our Lady of Paladins. She is one of the central figures in the ballads comprising the Lionsbane Cycle (earliest manuscript 232).

Tane Dynasty

188-377: Tane dynasty rules Kaldor

235: King Lotin the Grey of Nurelia dies fighting the Taelda barbarians leaving a fourteen year-old son Prince Brant. Nurelia (Olokand area) occupied by King Kalabin Tane of Kaldor.

237: Disappearance of Prince Brant of Nurelia, held at Olokand, and the Nurelian crown jewels and the 'Tome of Ethelyen'.

238: Baronial Revolt over Prince Brant's disappearance, Battle of Olokand, King Kalabin victorious

362: King Maranos dies, Aidrik II becomes King

362-377: Kaldoric civil war between Aidrik II and his bastard elder brother Fierth 'the Usurper' of Qualdris when many Barons support Fierth's bid to usurp his brother

377: Fierth of Qualdris wins over Aidrik II at the Battle of Kiban when Aidrik is betrayed by Earl Parlis of Pagostra. Fierth rewards Earl Parlis by executing him.
