

Mr. Sunglasses

By War Cry (original post)

Man in his mid 30's , always wearing dark sunglasses, day or night, rain or shine. Dresses in blue jeans, shirt sleeves and a dark sport coat, sometimes the faint outline of a bulge is visible under the sportcoat, possibly a gun. Also has a barely visible earpiece that could be a phone, radio, or communication device. No one has ever heard him speak, knows his name, or even knows if he is even staying in the hotel, but wherever the PC's are, he is there, in the background watching them intently.
