

Bano's Final Act

When this spell is cast, the wizard brings to bear the totality of his power and experience as a spell-caster and releases it with a single word. All of that power then bursts out in a cataclysmic explosion that damages everything around the spot the caster was standing. The caster himself is utterly vaporized by the power released by this spell.

This spell was created by the Archmage Bano of Tarn, who originally called it "Word of Vengeance". Bano himself used his dying breath to cast this spell at the end of his disastrous fight with the great dragon Vermithoregarth. The dragon was killed in the explosion, just as Bano had planned. The spell's current name caught on shortly thereafter.
