Editing/Creating Rules

- All entries must be readable. If you write material with lots of typos and misspellings - someone will fix them.
- Don't enter material that isn't yours. It may be copyright, and will be deleted.
- If a page is Read Only there is a reason - either the stories are finished, or the authors don't wish to have their stories edited on a public website. Contact me for details if required.
- I have a fair bit of space left, so feel free to post large documents. I'll warn everyone if I start running out.
- This main page is only editable by me. Most other pages can be created or edited by anyone. If you want to change this page, let me know (curufea@yahoo.com)
- Here you can find information on creating a page
